

Fiscal Year 2021-22 Japanese-Language Education Project Grant

Application Instructions

Program Description

The Japan Foundation, Los Angeles (hereafter "JFLA") provides financial assistance for projects which can promote Japanese language education in a wide area (nationwide, statewide, or region-wide). The project should benefit as many Japanese language programs and teachers as possible. Therefore, projects which only benefit a single school are NOT eligible for this grant program. JFLA accepts applications from non-profit educational institutions/organizations in the U.S., not from individuals.

Grant Amount: Up to $5,000 per project

If your project is designed to benefit Japanese language learners, please apply for our "Japanese Language Learners Event Grant."

Eligible Projects for Support

Your proposed project should benefit or promote multiple Japanese language programs and teachers in a wide area (nationwide, statewide, or region-wide). The projects cannot be implemented for commercial, political, or religious purposes. The project must start and finish between April 1, 2021 and March 15, 2022.

Type A: Workshops/Seminars/Conferences for Japanese language teachers

Priority will be given to workshops/seminars/conferences which can provide participants with professional development credits/units (university credits, continuing education units, professional development clock-hours, etc.) or certificates of attendance (proof of workshop participation), which can be used towards receiving/renewing teacher's license/credential.

JFLA also encourages workshops/seminars/conferences which invite guest speakers not only from Japanese language education but also from the field of Japan Studies (Japanese Literature, History, Social Studies, etc.) so that Japanese language teachers can learn about Japan-related topics as well as how to incorporate the information pedagogically into their Japanese language classroom (content-based learning, project-based learning, etc.).

Type B: Other Original Projects

Any nationwide/statewide/region-wide projects which can benefit multiple Japanese language programs are welcome, however JFLA encourages the following types of projects.

- Projects which can bridge Japanese language education and Japan Studies.
- Advocacy projects to increase the visibility of Japanese language education in a wide region.
- Articulation projects for improving vertical articulation between different educational levels as well as horizontal articulation within the same educational level, in order to maximize students' learning environment at multiple Japanese programs in a wide
- Survey/Research projects that will be conducted in order to grasp/analyze the current condition of Japanese-language education or to gather demographic information related to Japanese-language education.
- Teaching Material Development projects that will benefit educators/learners nationwide or in a wide region.

Grant Coverage

- Type A: (1) Expenses for inviting guest lecturers (honorarium, accommodation, travel expense)
 - (2) Venue expenses (venue rental, equipment rental, etc.)
 - (3) Production costs for handouts/flyers/proceedings
 - (4) Participants' professional development credit application fees (university credits, CEU, etc.).

Type B:

The eligible items for support will vary depending on the type of projects.

Please consult with JFLA about what kinds of items you will need financial support for.

NOTE: The following expenses are NOT eligible for support:

- Indirect costs (administrative costs) not related to the grant project,
- Expenses for any food or drinks,
- Office supplies, PC, copy machine, any other electric appliances, furniture such as desks, chairs, etc.,
- Regular operating costs of the Japanese-language courses and salaries of current teaching staff,
- Business meetings (general meetings, board meetings, etc.) that are held regularly by the applicants,
- Cost of buying real estate and cost of construction work,
- Rental fee for halls owned by the applying organization/institution or group,
- Banquet costs and entertainment costs,
- Airfare exceeding the estimated fare for the shortest route from the city of origin to the destination flying economy class.

Eligible Applicants

- 1. Applicants must be non-profit educational institutions/organizations involved in Japanese language education (including teachers' associations and academic societies). Individuals are not eligible to apply.
- 2. In principle, JFLA does not provide grants for:
 - ① The U.S. government, including their administrative organs such as ministries and their embassies; excluding academic, cultural, or research institutes such as universities and museums
 - ② Institutions/organizations to which the Japanese government currently makes a financial contribution
 - ③ Institutions/organizations whose laws restrict them from receiving aid from foreign organizations affiliated with governments
 - ④ Institutions/organizations which serve commercial, political, or religious purposes
- 3. Applicants must have a bank account in the name of the institution/organization which is capable of accepting grants from JFLA, or should be able to open such accounts by the time the grants are sent. Receipt of grants or benefits from JFLA must not violate any laws and ordinances, etc.

Screening Criteria Applications will be reviewed from the following perspectives:

- Specific project outcomes expected
- Ripple effects of the project (benefits to Japanese language education in the national/regional level)
- Scale of the project (number of beneficiaries, number of schools involved, etc.)
- Topics/themes of the project
- Dissemination of project outcomes
- Ability to raise funds from sources other than the JFLA grant, including own funds
- Feasibility of the project plan (outline, framework, schedule, financial preparation, etc.)
