CELEBRATING NEW YEARS WITH JAPANESE TOYS

One of the features of Japanese toys is their close connection with annual events celebrated at different times of the year with customs originating in religious rituals. This sense of history and traditional custom is particularly alive in the games children play during New Years. For the month of January, we will be displaying different Japanese toys typically played by children during this time of year. Make sure to drop by JFLA to view the different items on display and play New Year's board games, and spinning tops.
