Mikiko Hara is one of four modern Japanese photographers who were featured in the exhibition In Focus: Tokyo that was held at the Getty Center August through December, 2014. Mikiko visited Los Angeles last fall to teach a master class hosted by the Getty Museum's Education Department as part of a partnership program with local community colleges.

Photography students from College of the Canyons and Pierce College participated in the master class lead by Mikiko and had a unique opportunity to learn her artistic philosophy and distinctive "snapshot style". This exhibition showcases the fruits of those students' hard work inspired by Mikiko Hara.
