STORY

Hiroshi is an actor, who always plays supporting roles and lives in the shadow of his famous playwright father. Often mistaken for someone else, even occasionally for a kidnapper, Hiroshi struggles daily with his marginalized existence.

But one day, luck changes. Hiroshi gets cast in a Woody Allen remake. He meets his muse Aya, an energetic aspiring actress, who doesn't mistake him for anyone else. Hiroshi falls for Aya head over heels, but Hiroshi is his own worst enemy for getting a date, or keeping the lead role... A sweet, subtle romantic comedy for all generations that will leave you smiling...

For General Audience. 97 minutes. In Japanese, with English subtitles
